

CHAPTER 97-62

Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 378

An act relating to municipal government; creating s. 166.0495, F.S.; authorizing municipalities to enter into interlocal agreements to provide law enforcement services within the boundaries of adjoining municipalities within the same county; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Section 166.0495, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

166.0495 Interlocal agreements to provide law enforcement services.—A municipality may enter into an interlocal agreement pursuant to s. 163.01 with an adjoining municipality or municipalities within the same county to provide law enforcement services within the territorial boundaries of the other adjoining municipality or municipalities. Any such agreement shall specify the duration of the agreement and shall comply with s. 112.0515, if applicable. The authority granted a municipality under this section is in addition to and not in limitation of any other authority granted a municipality to enter into agreements for law enforcement services or to conduct law enforcement activities outside the territorial boundaries of the municipality.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.

Became a law without the Governor's approval May 16, 1997.

Filed in Office Secretary of State May 12, 1997.
