

Senate Bill No. 1536

An act relating to the Florida Statutes; repealing ss. 110.116(2), 197.1722, 215.555(16), 261.06(12), 288.063(11), 338.2216(5), 372.60, 375.041(6), 401.113(4), 403.1838(4), 403.7095(7), 409.1671(1)(m), 468.805, 489.118(2)(b), 553.8412, and 1010.78(2), F.S., all of which provisions have become inoperative by noncurrent repeal or expiration and, pursuant to s. 11.242(5)(b) and (i), may be omitted from the Florida Statutes 2004 only through a reviser's bill duly enacted by the Legislature; and repealing s. 440.185(11), F.S., to confirm the October 2, 2003, repeal of an exemption in accordance with the Open Government Sunset Review Act of 1995.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Subsection (2) of section 110.116, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which relates to department authorization to contract with a vendor to provide the personnel information system for state agencies for the 2002-2003 fiscal year only, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 2. Section 197.1722, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited section, which relates to a waiver of certain mandatory charges relating to property taxes due for the 2001 tax year only, was repealed pursuant to its own terms, effective April 1, 2003.

Section 3. Subsection (16) of section 215.555, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which relates to a specified percentage for certain funds disbursement for the 2002-2003 fiscal year only, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 4. Subsection (12) of section 261.06, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which requires a review and report to determine the feasibility of providing public access for off-highway vehicle recreation and trails on public lands, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 5. Subsection (11) of section 288.063, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which relates to designation and funding of projects that the Legislature deems necessary to facilitate the economic development and growth of the state, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 6. Subsection (5) of section 338.2216, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which relates to turnpike toll collectors and laborers being temporarily continued in career service for the 2002-2003 fiscal year only, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 7. Section 372.60, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited section, which relates to issuance of a replacement hunting or fishing license or permit, was repealed by s. 39, ch. 2002-46, Laws of Florida, effective July 1, 2003. Since the section was not repealed by a "current session" of the Legislature, it may be omitted from the 2004 Florida Statutes only through a reviser's bill duly enacted by the Legislature. See s. 11.242(5)(b) and (i).

Section 8. Subsection (6) of section 375.041, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which specifies that, for the 2002-2003 fiscal year only, use of funds allocated to the Land Acquisition Trust Fund shall be as provided in the General Appropriations Act, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 9. Subsection (4) of section 401.113, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which relates to use of moneys in the Emergency Medical Services Trust Fund, for the 2002-2003 fiscal year only, for the purpose of funding the rural hospital capital improvement grant program in accordance with s. 395.6061, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 10. Subsection (4) of section 403.1838, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which authorizes the Department of Environmental Protection to waive a specified requirement in certain funding agreements, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 11. Subsection (7) of section 403.7095, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which provides that the Department of Environmental Protection shall provide solid waste management and recycling grants only to counties with populations under 100,000 for fiscal year 2002-2003 only, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 12. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) of section 409.1671, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited paragraph, which provides that, for the 2002-2003 fiscal year only, the Department of Children and Family Services may combine the current community-based care lead agency contracts for Sarasota, Manatee, and DeSoto Counties into a single contract, expired pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.

Section 13. Subsection (11) of section 440.185, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited subsection, which relates to confidentiality of a report of injury or illness filed pursuant to s. 440.185 that would identify an ill or injured employee, is repealed to confirm the October 2, 2003, repeal of an exemption in accordance with s. 119.15, the Open Government Sunset Review Act of 1995.

Section 14. Section 468.805, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Reviser's note.—The cited section, which grandfathered certain persons practicing orthotics, prosthetics, or pedorthics for purposes of licensure provisions for a specified period of time, was repealed pursuant to its own terms, effective July 1, 2003.
