I of the State Constitution.

h. The home addresses, telephone numbers, places of employment, and photographs of current or former guardians ad litem, as defined in s. 39.820,~~;~~ ~~and~~ the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such persons; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such persons, are exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution, if the guardian ad litem provides a written statement that the guardian ad litem has made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public. This sub-subparagraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, ~~2015~~ 2010, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

i. The home addresses, telephone numbers, and photographs of current or former juvenile probation officers, juvenile probation supervisors, detention superintendents, assistant detention superintendents, senior juvenile detention officers, juvenile detention officer supervisors, juvenile detention officers, house parents I and II, house parent supervisors, group treatment leaders, group treatment leader supervisors, rehabilitation therapists, and social services counselors of the Department of Juvenile Justice; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, and places of employment of spouses and children of such personnel; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such personnel are exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. This sub-subparagraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2011, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

2. An agency that is the custodian of the information specified in subparagraph 1. and that is not the employer of the officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in subparagraph 1. shall maintain the exempt status of that information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a written request for maintenance of the exemption to the custodial agency.

Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of current or former guardians ad litem be made exempt from public records requirements. Guardians ad litem provide a valuable service to the community. They interact with victims of child abuse and neglect and, at times, the perpetrators of that abuse or neglect. The capacity in which they work or volunteer their time does not always create good will. Different persons may be disgruntled with the testimony, report, or recommendation made by guardians ad litem. The testimony of guardians ad litem could create a safety risk. Thus, the children of guardians ad litem could become a potential target for acts of revenge. If the name and location of schools or day care facilities attended by the children of such persons were made available, the safety and welfare of the children of the guardians ad litem could be seriously jeopardized. Accordingly, it is a public necessity that such information be made exempt from public disclosure.

Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.

Approved by the Governor May 11, 2010.
