These personnel and members provide services that are necessary and appropriate for abused, abandoned, neglected, and exploited children. In addition, these personnel and members provide valuable and supportive services to the state’s most vulnerable residents. Despite the value of such services, some persons may become hostile toward these personnel and members and may pose a threat to them indefinitely. The harm that may result from the release of such personal identifying and location information outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the information.
