CHAPTER 2006-244

Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 2034

An act relating to educational opportunities for children and spouses of deceased or disabled veterans and servicemembers; amending s. 295.01, F.S.; providing that it is the declared policy of the state to provide educational opportunity at state expense for spouses of deceased or disabled servicemembers; providing criteria for qualification for such benefits for unremarried spouses of deceased servicemembers and dependent spouses of disabled servicemembers; amending s. 295.02, F.S.; specifying uses of funds appropriated for such educational opportunities; amending s. 295.03, F.S., relating to withdrawal of benefits upon failure to comply with minimum educational requirements; revising terminology; amending s. 295.05, F.S., relating to enrollment as a prerequisite to receipt of benefits; revising terminology; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Section 295.01, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

295.01 Children of deceased or disabled veterans; spouses of deceased or disabled servicemembers; education.—

(1) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state to provide educational opportunity at state expense for dependent children either of whose parents entered the Armed Forces and:

(a) Died as a result of service-connected injuries, disease, or disability sustained while on active duty; or

(b) Has been:

1. Determined by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or its predecessor to have a service-connected 100-percent total and permanent disability rating for compensation;

2. Determined to have a service-connected total and permanent disability rating of 100 percent and is in receipt of disability retirement pay from any branch of the United States Armed Services; or

3. Issued a valid identification card by the Department of Veterans’ Affairs in accordance with s. 295.17, when the parents of such children have been bona fide residents of the state for 1 year immediately preceding the death or occurrence of such disability, and subject to the rules, restrictions, and limitations set forth in this section.

(2) It is also the declared policy of this state to provide educational opportunity at state expense for spouses of deceased or disabled servicemembers.

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.
(a) The unremarried spouse of a deceased servicemember, as defined in s. 250.01, qualifies for the benefits under this section:

1. If the servicemember and his or her spouse had been residents of the state for 1 year immediately preceding the servicemember’s death and the servicemember’s death occurred under the circumstances provided in subsection (1); and

2. If the unremarried spouse applies to use the benefit within 5 years after the servicemember’s death.

(b) The dependent spouse of a disabled servicemember, as defined in s. 250.01, qualifies for the benefits under this section:

1. If the servicemember and his or her spouse have been married to each other for 1 year; and

2. If the servicemember and his or her spouse have been residents of the state for 1 year immediately preceding the occurrence of the servicemember’s disability and the disability meets the criteria set forth in subsection (1); and

3. Only during the duration of the marriage and up to the point of termination of the marriage by dissolution or annulment.

All rules, restrictions, and limitations set forth in this section shall apply.

(3)(2) Sections 295.03, 295.04, 295.05, and 1009.40 shall apply.

(4)(3) The State Board of Education shall adopt rules for administering this section.

Section 2. Section 295.02, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

295.02 Use of funds; age, etc.—

(1) All sums appropriated and expended to carry out the provisions of s. 295.01(1) under this chapter shall be used to pay tuition and registration fees, board, and room rent and to buy books and supplies for the children of deceased or disabled veterans or service members, as defined and limited in s. 295.01, s. 295.016, s. 295.017, s. 295.018, s. 295.0185, or s. 295.0195, or of parents classified as prisoners of war or missing in action, as defined and limited in s. 295.015, who are between the ages of 16 and 22 years and who are in attendance at a state-supported institution of higher learning, including a community college or career center. Any child having entered upon a course of training or education under the provisions of this chapter, consisting of a course of not more than 4 years, and arriving at the age of 22 years before the completion of such course may continue the course and receive all benefits of the provisions of this chapter until the course is completed.

(2) Sums appropriated and expended to carry out the provisions of s. 295.01(2) shall be used to pay tuition and registration fees for the spouses of deceased or disabled veterans or servicemembers, as defined and limited in s. 295.01, who are enrolled at a state-supported institution of higher learning, including a community college or career center. Notwithstanding the benefits-disbursement provision in s. 295.04, such funds shall be applicable for up to 110 percent of the number of required credit hours of an initial baccalaureate degree or certificate program for which the spouse is enrolled.

(3) The Department of Education shall administer this educational program subject to regulations of the department.

Section 3. Section 295.03, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

295.03 Minimum requirements.—Upon failure of any student child benefited by the provisions of this chapter to comply with the ordinary and minimum requirements of the institution attended, both as to discipline and scholarship, the benefits thereof shall be withdrawn as to the student child and no further moneys expended for his or her benefits so long as such failure or delinquency continues.

Section 4. Section 295.05, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

295.05 Admission; enrollment.—Eligibility for admission is not affected by this chapter, but all student children receiving benefits under this chapter shall be enrolled according to the customary rules and requirements of the institution attended.

Section 5. This act shall take effect July 1, 2006.

Approved by the Governor June 20, 2006.

Filed in Office Secretary of State June 20, 2006.
